

Github link:

What 3 values did you select and why?

Constancy, Creativity, and Adventure

Creativity and Adventure –All the work on the website is creative and the user should be drawn in to try some of the works.

Constancy – I don't want readers to be thrown off by random colors or spacing.

Which websites were inspiring to you and what did you like about them? Be sure to paste links to them.

<https://www.awwwards.com/sites/oui-will-agency>

Using lighter text on dark backgrounds instead of darker text on lighter backgrounds

Which style guide(s) did you draw inspiration from?

Salesforce's Lightning Design System: One of the pillars of their design is consistency and I tried to maintain my colors, margins, and other styling in all my pages.

What about your design communicates the values you selected?

Purple is often associated with ambition, creativity and mystery.

As a reader on this website, you're in pursuit of knowledge and the featured literary works display creativity. Using Purple should draw users in to try some of the works

What would you do next if you knew how to do it / had more time?

Create more ways to indicate that this is a book website